

McCowan's Musketeers

Resource Bulletin

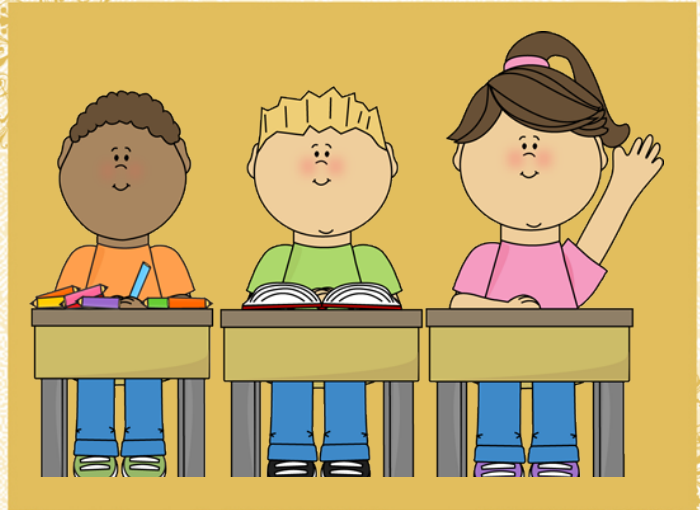

Hello Musketeer Parents!

This was a quick flyer that I wanted to send to you guys! Our multicultural incorporation in the classroom is going great! The students have just finished up our first reading and they enjoyed it very much! This second unit, I would like students to choose their own books and I would love for you to help! Below I have listed some websites that detail the best multicultural books for your child to read. Each of these websites has some great books I know our little musketeers will enjoy!
